THE SUPPOSED FATAL APPRAY IN PEARL STREET.—COFORER Samble held an inquest yesterday, at the New York Hos-pital, upon the body of a man named Philip Shiels, who, pital, upon the body of a man named Philip Shiels, who, it was supposed, died from the effects of a beating received on Sunday night, in the saloon No. 517 Pears street. The evidence adduced went to show that the deceased was quite a dissipated character; that on the hight in question he had been very intoxicated, and while in that condition he had a quarrel with a man manued Joseph Harris. Blows were exchanged, but no violence was received by the deceased sufficient to cause death. The physician at the hospital, who made a post mortem examination of the body, gave it as his opinion that death was caused by extravasated blood upon the brain, caused by intemperance. A verdict to that effect, and one exonerating Harris from all blame in the matter, was rendered by the jury. The accused was thereupon discharged from custody. Deceased was thirty years of age, and a native of Ireland.

SDECIDE OF AN UNKNOWN MAN BY DROWNING.—Coroner

SUICEDE OF AN UNKNOWN MAN BY DROWNING .- Corone Meore street, upon the body of an unknown man, about 40 years of age, who was found drowned yesterday morning. The deceased was perfectly naked, and it is supposed he was the unknown man who committed suicide a few days ago by jumping off the above pier. No evidence as to his name or place of residence could be obtained. Verdict, "Death by drowning."

FATAL HATCHWAY ACCIDENT .- Coroner Connery held an body of a man named Thos. Fackett, who died from in-puries accidentally received by failing down the hatch-way of Mr. Freble's store, No. 30 Beekman street. Ver-dict accordingly. Deceased was a native of Ireland, and was 18 years of age.

Bufference Suicide.—Coroner Connery also held an inquest upon the body of a man named George Clynk, who died at the New York Hospital from congestion of the lungs, produced by the excessive heat of Sunday. The deceased, it was supposed, committed suicide by taking strychnine, but a post mortem examination of the body showed clearly that death was caused by congestion of the lungs. Verdict accordingly. Deceased was 47 years of age, and was a native of Germany.

CHARGE OF HIGHWAY ROBBERT .- Patrick Congrove, alias kroach, was taken into custody on Monday night, by collecer Telleman, of the Fourth ward police, on charge of highway robbery, preferred against him by James Carrell, of No. 3 James street. The complainant alleges that he was knocked down and robbed of $175 in bank bills by the accused. In the possession of Cosgrove was found $25, which was identified by the complainant as a portion of the proceeds of the robbery. The affair took place at $2 Bowery, where, it is said, the parties were indulging in a social game of faro, when Cosgrove becoming desperate at the losses he had met with, sought to regain his money by forcibly taking a well filled pocketbook from the person of Carrell. The accused was taken before Justice Cosmolly yesterday morning, when he was held to bail in the sum of $1,000 to answer the charge before the next term of the Court of General Sessions. officer Telleman, of the Fourth ward police, on charge of DEADLY ASSAULT ON SHIPBOARD .- James Sheehan was police, on charge of having committed an aggravated assault upon a sailor named Dean Hughes. The accused, who is second mate of the brig Niome, now lying at pier No. 8, North river, became engaged in a quarrel with Hughes on Monday evening, when the former struck the latter over the head with a heavy billet of wood. Hughes was conveyed to the New York Hospital, where the physicians in attendance are et opinion that he cannot recover. Sheehan was committed for examination by Justice Consoliv.

bary Hiderbrandt, residing in Fifty-second street, between Sixth and Seventh avenues, discovered some young there in her garden stealing cherries. She immediately ordered them off the premises, when one of the young rescals picked up a large stone, and flung it at her, striking her in the head. The scapegraces then jumped into a wagon and drove off, leaving the woman in an almost senseless state. One of the Twenty-second ward police discovered the woman lying upon the ground, and had her conveyed to the station house, where her wounds were dressed by the district surgeon. None of the scamps have been arrested.

CHARGE OF PASSING COUNTERFEIT MONEY .- Thomas Gibwas arrested by one of the Fitteenth ward police, on charge of having passed a counterfeit $5 on the Hamilton Bank, of Scituate county, R. I., upon Mr. Fatcoson, proprietor of a store at No. 87 Bieecker street, in exchange her some trivial article of merchandise. The accused was taken before Justice Davison, at the Second District Police Court, where he was held for examination on the PTED OUTRAGE ON A FEMALE.-About 12 o'clock, on Monday night, a young Irish woman, named Eliza Malsh, who had just arrived in this country, appeared before assistant Captain Hunt, of the Fifth district police, and astered a complaint against a private watchman on board the steamboat Massachusetts, lying at the foot of North Behth street, for attempted rape. It appears that complainant was looking for a situation, when she was met in the street by accused, who invited her to remain with his family until she could get a place. By this means he succeeded in inducing her to go on board the Massachusetts, which has been condemned, and lies anchored near the dock. On entering the cabin he locked the deor, and then attempted to carry out his design. After keeping the woman prisoner for several hours, she was allowed to go on deck, and from thence was set on shore by a negro who was passing in a small boat. A party of effects visited the eteamboat about 1 o'clock yesterday morning to arrest the accused, but were unable to find him, and up to the present time he is at large.

ond Whig pitches into Martin Van Buren the true Southern chivalry style, commencing with:
"If there is a man within the limits of the republic who is cordially abhorred and detested by intelligent and patriotic men of all parties at the South, that man is Martin Van Buren." Prince John's turn will come

Some of the Southern journals take it very my heart that Col. Fremont, who was educated at the South, should be the republican candidate for the Presidency. The Columbia South Carolinian says:—in early life his manhood he was upheld by generous and patriotic men—in the development of his genius South Caro-lina encouraged him by her support, and pre-sented him with a sword, in token of her appreciation of the use he had made of his talents and the energy and force of character he had exhibited in his daring efforts to add to the science of his country.

And he stands before the world as an avowed matricide—as the representative of principles and passions foreign to our nature, and destructive of all the best feelings of man instilled in him in his childhood and early youth, and he is eagerly sought for by his new adherents, be cause he is a traitor! Like Judas, he has been seduced, and sold himself for a price.

A Fremont ratification meeting in Greensburg, In diana, at which no less than five thousand persons were present, was addressed by one of the democratic nomi-nees for elector! He said that if elected he should vote to-day, in Richmond.

A Fremont and Johnston meeting was held at ter, Mass., on Saturday evening last, to form a club. A discussion ensued as to the title of the club—whether it should be Fremont and Johnston, or simply Fremont. The adherents of Johnston prevailed, by a vote of 26 to 24.

The Louisville Journal, of the 11th inst., says —General Houston, United States Senator from Texas, passed through this city yesterday on his way to Washington. His health is perfectly re-established. He seems ten years younger than he did when we saw him in Frank-fort last winter. He looks as if he had a dozen political campaigns in him, and twice as many military ones. The Richmond Whig says that Governor Wise would leave Richmond on Tuesday morning, estensibly on an excursion to Cape Charles, but really to make the necessary arrangements in Accomac and the other counties composing the First Congressional district, for the election of a successor to Gen. Bayly, recently deceased.

The Weekly Tribane, a strong democratic paper, published at Manitowoc, Wisconsin, has hauled down the Buchanan flag, and declared its preference for Colonel Frement. In its issue of July 3 it announces the fact, as follows:—"The name of James Buchanan no longer floats from the political masthead of this sheet. Next week we shall enlist under the banner of Colonel John C. Fremont, and, 'sink or swim, live or die, survive or perish,' we shall feel a soldier's pride in battling manfully under the proud banner of equal rights."

Hon. Oscar F. Moore, says the Providence Post, the

The Slave Trade in Baltim

The Slave Trade in Baltimore.

(From the American, July 15.)

Four persons were yesterday taken into custody in this city by J. W. Watkins, Eq., the United States Marshal, on the charge of having been engaged in the slave trade. Their names are C. T. Baker, A. C. Baptista, Carlos Labradada and a Mr. Stabler. The circumstances which led to their arrest have not yet been fully made known, but as far as we have been able to learn them they are as follows:—Some months age the schooner C. F. A. Cole was purchased by Mr. Stabler, and was fitted out at this port, as is supposed, for the slave traffic. It is also conjectured that she sailed for the coast of Africa, secured a carge of slaves, went to the island of Cuba, where the slaves were sold, and returned to the Chesapeake Bay, and there the vessel was scuttled.

The statement about the voyage to Africa and the selling of the slaves is a mere coujecture, but the scutting of the slaves is a mere coujecture, but the scutting of the slaves is a mere coujecture, but the scutting of the slaves is a mare conjunctive, but the scutting of the slaves is a mare conjunctive, but the scutting of the slaves is a mare conjunctive, but the scutting of the slaves is a mare conjunctive, but the scutting of the slaves is a mare conjunctive, but the scutting of the slaves is a mare conjunctive, but the scutting of the slaves on the was discovered at the mouth of the St. Mary's river, in the Chesapeake Bay, where she had been scuttled and was rapidly filling with water; she was taken in charge by salvors and brought into port, and by order of the United States District Court was last week sold and the proceeds of the sale divided between the government and the salvors. The vessel having been abandoned, excited the suspicion that it was a slaver, and it was condemned to be sold for that reason. At the instigation of the United States District Altorney, warrants were issued for the arrest of all parties engaged in fitting out and conducting the vessel, and accordingly the persons above

A CARD—TO SOUTHERNERS—DRINKERS OF CONgress Water.—An inferior article of mineral water is advertised and sold under the name of 'Raratoga' water, the word 'Raratoga' being used by counterfeiters of Congress water in cases where they dare not risk selling their fictitious article as "Congress" water. The success of the sheat article as "Congress water having been so often called Saratoga water, that many people suppose that is its true and only name. Taking savanage of this, the spurious article is so put up, with names, marks and bottles, so as to reasemble, as mear as they dare. Congress water, and mostly sold as an imitation of it to those unacquainted with the desinguishing marks and brand, peculiar flavor and qualities of the genuine Congress water. There are a multitude of springs at Saratoga, the water from any of which might be thus sold as "Saratoga" water, by persons whose scruples of conscience extend only to acase where they are liable to pecuniary punisement, and yet the article so imposed outhe public be worthless or laquirous. If you want genuine Congress water, buy it of respectable dealers only, and in all cases observe that the brand on the cork is Congress water—C. & W., for if without those words and letters, it is a swinding counterfeit. Ou writing to us, we will send you a list of prices, siese and packages; and by ordering from us knifely forwarded to any part of the world.
